

Gary Gales, DPT

Education

- Bachelors in Soil Science from the University of Wisconsin in 1979
- Doctor in Physical Therapy from the University of Montana in 2004

State Licensed

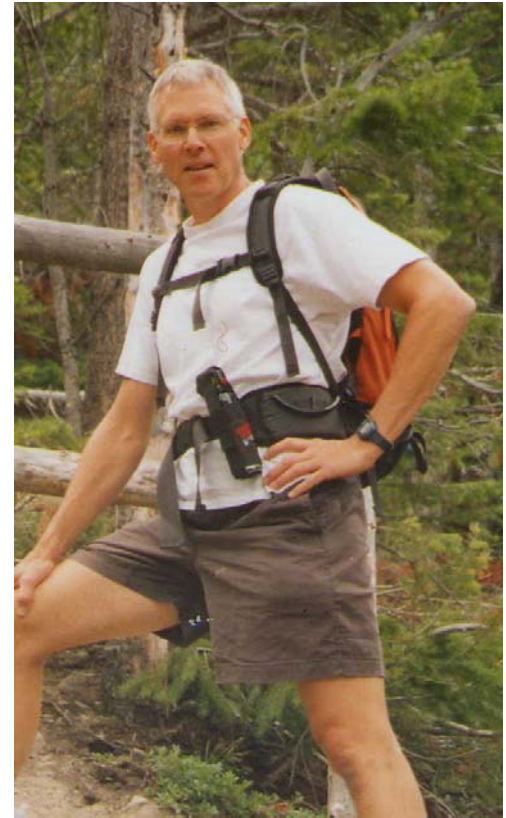

Montana

Joined Practice

2004

Professional Memberships

Orthopedic Section of the APTA
APTA
MAPTA

Clinical Interests or Specialty Areas

Back and spine care, manual therapy, orthopedics, functional rehabilitation, and correct movement and postural strategies. He is currently pursuing advanced manual therapy skills through the North American Institute of Orthopedic Manual Therapy.

Hobbies and Personal Interests

Fishing, canoeing, rafting, hiking, hunting, biking, skiing, gardening, home projects, and enjoying Montana.

Philosophy of Care

“With physical therapy our aim is to change the way you do things to get you feeling better and back to your life.”

